

Project Title: Mission, Structure, and Resources of ERIC (Educational Resources Information Center)

Investigator(s): Jane Robbins

Funding Agency: State Library & Archives of Florida

Award Dates: October 1999 – June 2000

Award Amount: $10,000

The goal of this project was to analyze existing information about the Education Resources Information Center (ERIC). The Institute explored the mission of ERIC, its relationships with other organizations, the effectiveness of its structure and processes and the resources it would need to best serve its users. This project produced the first in a series of 5 papers the U.S. Department of Education commissioned towards evaluation of the entire ERIC system.
